Tender Form of Response - Apet

Why eResponse?

- To manage the large volume of tenders expected.
- Allow companies the convenience of a free, multi-user application designed to make tendering simpler and easier to manage.
- Reduce the costs associated with preparing tenders & reduce the time associated with evaluating tenders.

Install eResponse

- Install eResponse version 2.1 (included in Tender)
- Get started by clicking the newly installed program icon and opening the .aem file that forms part of the Tender documents

(Can also be found on <http://downloads.langeconsulting.com.au/>)

Apet eResp .Net 2.0

(See Apet Task Card "A" for more detail.)

Tender stage

Screen shot of eResponse

The screenshot displays the 'Apet eResponse - Evaluation : Project1' application window. It features a menu bar (File, Edit, View, Tools, Help) and a toolbar. The main interface is divided into several sections:

- Criterion Text: Contains the question: "The supplier will make a clear statement of the warranty offered."
- Compliance / Response Submission: Includes a dropdown menu for "Please select a compliance statement:" (currently set to "Comply with Alternative"), an "Attachments:" section, and a text area for the response: "My company's clear statement of the warranty offered is as follows: We undertakeetc etc."
- Inclusion Map: A tree view showing project structure: "Project1" (Non Engineering requirements, Engineering requirements) with sub-items like "People Requirements", "Warranty", "Material Requirements", "General", and "Technical".
- Criteria: A table listing evaluation criteria with checkboxes for completion.
- Progress Bar: Located at the bottom, showing "Progress: 100%" and "36 criteria".

Annotations with callout boxes provide additional context:

- "Our question for you to answer." points to the Criterion Text.
- "Select if Comply, fully, partly, Alternative." points to the compliance dropdown menu.
- "Your response is added here." points to the response text area.
- "Work through each item. Once completed you see the tick '✓'." points to the checked boxes in the Criteria table.
- "Progress bar shows how much still to be done / completed." points to the progress bar at the bottom.

Buttons for "Undo", "Apply", and "Next" are visible at the bottom of the form area.
